STATUS REPORT ON SETTLEMENT OF INDIAN CLAIMS

Pursuant to the Court's sua sponte Order, dated May 30, 2003, the United States hereby reports on the status of negotiations or settlement talks concerning Pueblo or Tribal rights.

1. There have been no changes in the status of this case, with regard to settlement of Pueblo or tribal rights, since the report submitted by the United States on December 22, 2004. Other than the Jicarilla Apache Nation's rights, which as reported previously have been decreed pursuant to a completed settlement, the only Indian water rights within the scope of this adjudication are those of the San Juan Pueblo. The Special Master's November 3, 2004 Scheduling Order on Pueblo Claims [Doc. No. 7639] established two subproceedings to adjudicate that Pueblo's water rights. Pursuant to that order, the United States and San Juan Pueblo are to file their subproceeding complaints for the first subproceeding in March and May of 2007, respectively. Although the Pueblo and several other parties have, in the past, expressed an interest in settlement, no negotiations are on-going at this time and no Federal Negotiating Team has been appointed by the U.S.

Department of the Interior. The United States has not received any communication concerning settlement of San Juan Pueblo's water rights since the December 22, 2004 status report.

Respectfully submitted this 5th day of July, 2005.
